

Elwood Staffing acquires Beacon Staffing

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 7, 2012 (Columbus, Ind.) – Elwood Staffing is pleased to announce its recent acquisition of Beacon Staffing of Grand Rapids, Holland, and St. Joseph, Michigan. Together, the two entities represent more than 65 offices in eleven states throughout the nation, employ over 350 corporate staff, and annually place more than 45,000 temporary associates.

“Elwood and Beacon share many of the same values,” says Chief Executive Officer, Mark Elwood. “We believe this partnership will enhance the employment experience for both our clients and our associates, and we are excited to strengthen our existing branch network in Michigan.”

Elwood Staffing is based in Columbus, Indiana. Recently, Staffing Industry Analysts recognized Elwood Staffing as the 19th largest light-industrial and 57th largest overall staffing firm in the United States. The company was also recognized as the largest staffing firm in Alabama and the 2nd largest firm operating in Indianapolis, IN. The company finished 2011 with total sales just under $280 million.
