ELWOOD STAFFING CEO RECEIVES INDUSTRY HONOR FOR FOURTH TIME IN ITS SEVEN YEAR RUN

(Columbus, IN.) February 20, 2018—Elwood Staffing® Chairman and CEO Mark S. Elwood appeared in Staffing Industry Analysts' (SIA) annual list of North America's 100 most notable influencers for the fourth time since its inception. The list, now in its seventh year, celebrates individuals working in all capacities within the staffing industry whose contributions have positively impacted the lives and livelihoods of workers and job seekers across the national workforce landscape.

"It is a privilege to be recognized by SIA alongside some of the most talented folks in our industry. Though my name may be the one being honored, the success of Elwood, and the ability we possess to have such a sizable impact on the industry, is not mine alone. This honor also belongs to Elwood's more than 1,100 staff," said Elwood Staffing Chairman and CEO, Mark S. Elwood.

Over the past year, Elwood has continued to make moves that further cement its position as a national leader in the staffing industry. Under Mark's leadership, Elwood experienced strong growth, ending 2017 at $975M+ in revenue, achieving an all-time record high of new customers billed weekly, and acquiring three industry competitors. Additionally, the company was one of the first six U.S. staffing firms to earn the Safety Standard of Excellence mark from the American Staffing Association.

Elwood is the 10th largest industrial staffing firm, the 18th largest U.S. staffing firm, and the 46th largest global staffing firm. On a local level, Elwood's success has spurred expansion at its corporate campus in Columbus, Indiana; construction is currently underway for a two-story, 27,000 square foot building complete with conference rooms, outdoor terrace spaces, an internet café, and an outdoor water feature. Once completed, the addition will allow Elwood to almost double the number of employees working at the company's corporate location. The building is set to open in the third quarter of 2018.
